

From Clusters To Competitiveness

PROPELLING REGIONAL STRATEGIES FOR SUCCESS
IN THE WORLDWIDE MARKETPLACE

Sept. 10,
2008

2:30 PM EDT
Special
One-hour Telecast

Join EDA for an hour-long cutting-edge discussion on industry clusters. From Clusters to Competitiveness (C2C) will examine the role of clusters in economic development strategies; highlight successful clusters; discuss best practices; and focus on “what’s next” in cluster development both nationally and in the worldwide marketplace. In addition to in-studio panelists, EDA will feature several guests joining from live satellite feeds. Registered attendees will have an opportunity to call or email questions.

Panelists include: Karen G. Mills

President, MMP Group

Michael Porter

Bishop William Lawrence University Professor,
Harvard University

Deborah L. Wince-Smith

President, Council on Competitiveness

Hosted by: Benjamin Erulkar

U.S. Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce
for Economic Development

To Register
Visit:

<http://edabroadcast.haverstick.biz>

Members of the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP), please note that this telecast is part three (3) of a multipart series that will be registered for Certification Maintenance (CM) credits with an adjoining curriculum that is now available for download at www.planning.org/eda.